SHAMEEM (TAHERI-LEE) is an Australian soul singer/songwriter based in Perth. She impressed the soul world with her 2014 long player, 'The Second City'. Connoisseurs grew particularly fond of her Alicia Keys-flavoured 'Beautiful Soul'.

Shameem is now set to follow that up with a four track EP, 'Time Does Not Reverse' that wins release at the end of July. The lead single, 'I Love You But' has just become available and if you can get past the odd electro intro you'll discover a fine contemporary soul tune with great lyrics about loving, but not liking someone!

The EP's other tracks are the lazy, jazzy 'Just A Show', a quirky 'Moderation' and 'Pass It On' - a lovely, simple, sweet. old school pop-soul ballad with a killer hook in the chorus.

Shameem launches her EP with a show in Perth on July 29th. People in the rest of the world can learn more @ www.shameemmusic.com
