

'To Feel Your Grace' is the latest single from BRIAN POWER'S Soulhouse label. Helping Brian deliver the goods is the Voice's MICHELLE JOHN and you can feel (and hear) her soul power on the original mix... a lovely, harmonic modern soul groove with the sweetest of melodies. Michelle nails it!

This being Soulhouse, though, you know there's going to be soulful house mixes too.... in fact there are two. The first comes courtesy of Klevakeys and, good guessing again, the cut features plenty of crazy keyboard comings and goings.

Ooh Ooh MISS GRACE....

Brooklyn's Mike Delgado delivers the second mix –deeper and a tad jazzier, but still set to fill floors everywhere.

Traxsource will have the tune from June 22nd; general release July 5th
