The ever lovely JODY WATLEY returns to the fray with a new single 'The Passion'. The soulful mid-tempo rumble is credited to "Jody Watley and SRL"... SRL, as you may remember from their January single, stands for "Soul, Revolution, Love" and Jody says, "There is some portion of those elements in everything we do through the music, and it's been a part of everything I do as a solo artist...the revolution is always feeling against the grain but being bold and fearless with my vision and always doing it from my soul – with love. We want to inspire others with what we're doing."

Want to be inspired? Check 'The Passion' right now .....it's out now on Ms W's own Avitone label and we're told that the song is a foretaste of her upcoming 'Bridges' long player.
