Last month the ever lovely JODY WATLEY returned to the fray with a new single 'The Passion'. The soulful mid-tempo rumble was credited to "Jody Watley and SRL"... SRL, as you may remember from their January single, stands for "Soul, Revolution, Love" and especially in the Alex Di Cio remix it won itself plenty of plays.

Now as Autumn beckons, the song gets a "powerful" house makeover from Brian Power (poor pun!) who notches up the beats and takes us on a roller coaster soul ride with a hint of Latin that quite transforms the song. This new mix is good to good to go on AVIDMUSIC Fri 28th September.
